FINANCIAL SECURITY

CREATING STRONG FINANCIAL FUTURES FOR EVERY GENERATION

Financial hardship often begins with unexpected costs and limited access to support. We're working to close those gaps so that more Alaskans can take steps to build lasting financial security. Our community initiatives and investments help people avoid eviction, connect to workforce development opportunities, and access public-assistance benefits. A network of resources and services allows Alaskans to weather setbacks and have better lives.

EMPOWERING COMMUNITY MEMBERS TO BE SELF-SUFFICIENT

We work alongside nonprofits, faith organizations, workplaces, and community members. Our help connects Alaskans to programs and assistance to develop their financial stability. It includes our Eviction Diversion, Home for Good, and Landlord Housing Partnership programs. We also help people sign up for free tax prep and supports at places like Alaska Literacy Program and Food Bank of Alaska.
